Preliminary Program

Welcome

Dear Colleagues:

Mary Beth and I would like to welcome you to the 60th Annual Meeting of the Southern Neurosurgical Society at the beautiful Ritz-Carlton Lodge, Reynolds Plantation in Greensboro, Georgia.

The theme of this year’s meeting is “In Search of Simplicity”. In 1958, Dr. R. Eustace Semmes, a founding member and first president of the Southern Neurosurgical Society, published an article in the Journal of Neurosurgery titled “In favor of Simplicity.” Challenging neurosurgery for thoughtful discrimination of what measures are really indicated to achieve a safe and effective outcome for patients by the simplest methods possible in order to minimize time, effort, pain, and costs.

Given the significant expansion of technology and neurosurgical complexity, it is appropriate to reexamine this challenge. The scientific program committee, led by Dr. Todd Vitaz, has assembled an excellent scientific program with contributions from an outstanding number of speakers who will address the concept of simplicity in their respective areas of expertise.

We are extremely honored this year to have two neurosurgical icons as our Semmes and Hudson lecturers. The R. Eustace Semmes lecture will be given by Dr. Volker Sonntag. The William Henry Hudson lecture will be given by Dr. Edward Laws.

In addition, we are delighted that Joyce Carol Oates, one of the grand dames of American literature, will be our third annual Edward “Ned” Downing lecturer. Ms. Oates is one of our country’s most prolific and versatile contemporary writers and will be speaking on Rejection in Creative Artists. Her writing has earned her much praise and many awards including the National Book Award for her novel Them, the 2004 Fairfax Prize for Lifetime Achievement in the Literary Arts, the PEN/ Malamud Award for Excellence in Short Fiction, the Rosenthal Award from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, a Guggenheim fellowship, and the O’Henry Prize for Continued Achievement in the Short Story, among many others.

In addition to the excellent scientific program, we have a spectacular social program planned in keeping with the traditions of the South led by Dr. Jay Howington and his wife, Cori.

We hope you will make plans to join us in Georgia “In Search of Simplicity” at the 60th Annual Meeting of the Southern Neurosurgical Society.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Wharen, Jr., MD
SNS President

Continuing Medical Education Credit

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials and Standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the AANS and the Southern Neurosurgical Society (SNS). The ACCME accredits the AANS to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The AANS designates this educational activity for a maximum of 12.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Claim CME Credit the Easy Way!

Attendees will self-report CME credit for the programs they attend by going online to MyAANS.org. Please have your username (e-mail address) and password handy during and after the meeting for convenient submission. Once logged in, click on “Self-Reporting” on the left and choose ‘2009 Southern Neurosurgical Society Annual Meeting.’

CME Credit for Posters

Physicians can earn AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ for preparing a scientific/educational poster presentation, which is also included in the published abstracts, for a live activity approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians may claim Category 2 toward the AMA PRA for viewing scientific posters. To obtain credits for these activities, physicians must apply directly to the AMA.

Disclosure

Before the program, all faculty will disclose the existence of any financial interest and/or other relationship they might have with manufacturer(s) of any commercial product to be discussed during their presentation.
